Hurt, Joshua -- "AN OLD RESIDENT. was born in Spartansburg District, SC, May 15, 1799. He will, therefore, be eighty years old on the 15th of next month. He came to this state (then a territory) in the fall of 1818, and settled in the northern part of Howard county, at a time when the Dennys, Coopers, Delannas and other of the first pioneers were in their prime. His first wife was a Miss. Denny, aunt of Col. A. F. Denny of Huntsville, with whom he lived thirty-six years.

"He removed to Randolph county about the year 1834, and settled near Mount Airy, where he resided for thirty-four years. Archibald Rutherford, the Goodings, and a few others were already settled in the county when he arrives. Huntsville was in its infancy and contained only about a handful of inhabitants. He has witnessed the steady growth of the county from a wilderness, containing here and there a settlement, to a densely peopled, prosperous and progressive territory, with 25,000 people, numerous cities and towns and six million dollars' worth of property.

"In the fall of 1868, he moved to and located near Moberly, a part of his farm being within the corporate limits of the city. He has had three wives. His first wife (nee Denny) died in 1855, and after her death he made a visit to friends in Kentucky--the only time he has been out of the state in the more than sixty years of his residence in Missouri. He and his first wife had three children--only one of whom, the wife of Judge Wm. E. Walden, is living. Mr. Hurt is still vigorous, and with the exception of a slight deafness, is in full possession of all his faculties and senses. He has a rich fund of reminiscences of "ye olden time," some of which we will endeavor to obtain for our 4th of July Review."; MDM Thursday 17 Apr 1879

This John may or may not be the same as the other one. There were several Winn couples in Howard County about that time.

On the KY Biographies site, at: <http://www.starbase21.com/kybiog/fayette/gess.jw.txt>, it says that the name Winn was closely related with the early settlement of the area around Fayette Co. in this (my caps):

"HISTORY OF FAYETTE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, by Robert Peter, ed. by William H. Perrin, O. L. Baskin Co., Chicago, 1882. Reprinted by Southern Historical Press, Easley, SC, 1979.

JOHN W. GESS, deceased, was son of John Gess, who fought in the war of 1812, and was at Dudley's defeat, and of Annie (WINN) Gess, both natives of Virginia. He was born September 8, 1774; she, June 28, 1779; they were married January 19, 1800, in Fayette County, whither they had come when quite young. Their son, John W., born August 18, 1810, was a resident of the county during his lifetime. On December 18, 1832, he married Mary A., daughter of William and Lydia (WINN) Spurr. The names WINN and Spurr are closely identified with the first settlement of this part of Kentucky...Both now reside on the farm received from Government by their great-grandfather, Owen WINN."

The below [my caps] is from: <http://www.starbase21.com/kybiog/nelson/winn.txt>

"Taken from old clippings dealing with Kentucky family history, newspaper unknown. These clippings are about 100 years old (1997). Reprinted in Kentucky Explorer, Volume 10, Number 1 - May 1995. pp. 94-95. Nelson County.

Capt. Owen Winn, Capt. Thomas Winn and Edward Winn came over with the London Company in 1620, from Wales, the family there belonging to the nobility. The parish register of Middlesex County has these entries: Richard Winn, son of Richard and Sarah Winn, was baptized September 28, 1701; John, son of same, November 25, 1701; Thomas, son of Richard and Anne Winn, born March 5, 1716; Thomas Winn died October 10, 1716; Thomas Winn died October 10, 1716. Owen Winn died April 17, 1722; William Winn, Sr., died October 27, 1710. Richard and Sarah had Mary, born December 14, 1696, and Sarah, born January 17, 1798. March 1784, George Winn on Treasury warrant settled on 1,000 acres in Fayette County, Ky. Will probated in 1802, witnessed by Henry Cotton, John Winn and Hendley. Owen Winn, August 16, 500 acres on Stoners Fork. MINOR WINN, SEPTEMBER 1, 1786, 2,600 ACRES ON LICKING; SON DAVID, GRANDSON JOHN D. WINN. James Winn, 112 acres in Nelson County April 1, 1786. George and Lettice Winn had ten children. His sons were Thomas, George, William and Adam. His daughters were the wives of Henry Cotton, John Hancock, Icholida Musick, Edward Brandley, William Herndon, John Hendley and Samuel Clay, of Bourbon County. William Herndon married Katherine Winn. He and his wife both died in 1850. They had five children, John Patrick, Henry George, Elijah, Elizabeth and Sallie. William Herndon came to Kentucky in 1800 from Charlotte County, Va. Capt. William Herndon of Lancaster, Ky., is his grandson and may know the Winn story. Isholida Musick, born in 1763, married Sally Winn. His daughter Nancy married Capt. James Duncan, soldier in 1812, who died in Elm Grove, Clay County, Mo., leaving a large family. Adam Winn was drowned in Kentucky River at the mouth of Elk Creek, May 21, 1826. John Hendley married Jemima Winn. Owen and Mary Cotton Winn had: Sarah Winn, married Boggs; Susannah, married --- Spurr; ELizabeth married William Vallandingham; Polly married --- King; Jane married Charles Grimes; Anna married John Gess; Lydia married William C. Spurr; Dora Winn married Aaron H. Young; Barbara Winn married Robert Bush; John Winn married Susanna Dulin; Nathaniel Winn. Mary Cotton Winn was the daughter of John Cotton of Nelson County. What kin was this John Cotton to Henry Cotton who married the daughter of George and Lettice or Letitia Winn? What was Letitia Winn's maiden name? I find beside those above the following marriage records in the Fayette County Court: Lucy C. Winn ad Joseph Gatewood; Willis Winn and Elizabeth Winn; James Winn and Mary D. ---; Jacob Winn and C. A. Sherman; Owen and George B. Harrison; Lydia Ann Winn and James Clarke; Jesse D. Winn and Lucy Buckner; Rebecca Winn and George Clay. Where do these Winns belong? Owen Winn's will was probated September 8, 1805. William Davenport, Thomas Clarke and Charles Grimes witnesses. The above is from authentic records."

A "Graves" biography at the following site: <http://www.starbase21.com/kybiog/kenton/graves.txt> has:

"...The daughters married...Nathaniel Winn, George Winn...Their descendants are numerous, mostly in Kentucky and Missouri...Prominent among the grandsons of Bartlett Graves, now living, are...also the Winns of Missouri."

The above bio says " Minor Winn, September 1, 1786, 2,600 acres on Licking; son David, grandson John D. Winn." That would indicate that there was another John David Winn, or this man belongs under a different father...David. The John Winn Sr. above who had a son Minor may be this one.

I received the below email 1/00, which is very helpful (caps mine on my ancestor):

I was able to read the microfilm of the Howard county, MO Land records and found the deeds you told me about. I transcribed them word for word and thought you might like a copy, if you didn't have one already. They follow this note.

John Winn did not leave a will. The first mention of settlement of his estate is in the Probate Record book 1, page 20 "Monday, May 6th 1822 The administrations of the estate of John Winn deceased is granted to Paton Hurt and David Manchester upon their executing bond with Elisha Witt and William Hurt, their securities in the penalty of two thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs."

Then there are several reports by the administrators and the final accounting isn't recorded until May 1830. It will take some time to copy it all, but when it's done, I'll sent it to you. The best listing of heirs is the land record.
